“Whatever things

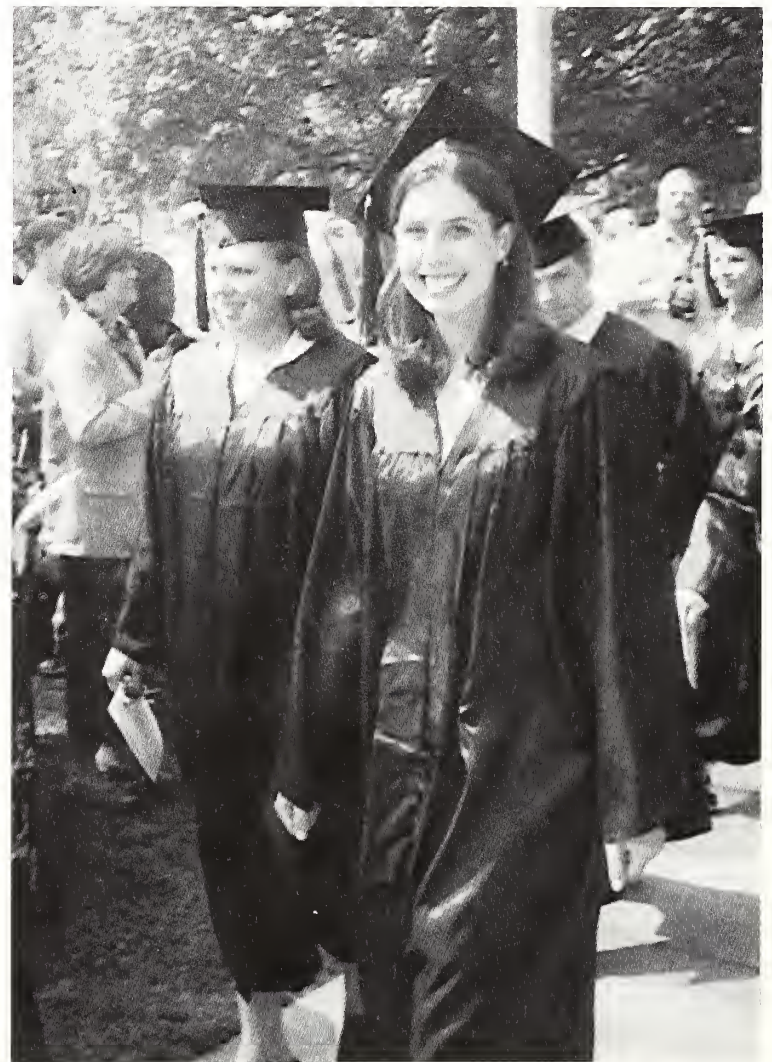

Each year Lambuth celebrates many traditions and commemorates events in special ways. Orientation, Opening Convocation, and Who's Who Convocation begin each year with a renewed spirit of determination and inspiration. Homecoming enlivens the campus and allows the family of Lambuth to reconvene and nurture those long-lasting bonds made while at Lambuth. In the spring, Honor's Day is recognized to show pride in the efforts of many diligent students. Finally, graduation caps off the year with a high spirited, encouraging ceremony. All these events are commemorated annually and prove to be more special and significant each year. Lambuth is a family and a community that observes its time-honored traditions in hopes of preserving that special connection between the past, present, and future.

Graduation 2000

The commencement exercises of Lambuth University's Class of 2000, the most anticipated event of the academic year, took place on April 30 on a beautiful, warm spring afternoon in the C.S. Carney Commons. Hundreds of family members and friends gathered to observe the conferring of degrees upon 190 Lambuth students who each contributed their talents to make this class an extraordinary one. Keynote speaker, Dr. Roy Williams, delivered a moving address in which he challenged the graduates to reflect on past achievements and to commit themselves to attaining higher achievement in the future. Following the address, the University recognized the Fiftieth Anniversary Class of 1950 and Faculty Emeriti of 2000. Academic Dean Susan Kupisch then presented individual awards to three seniors who enhanced the Lambuth community in exceptional ways. The R.E. Womack Outstanding Senior Award was presented to Brandon Dyce. The Alpha Omicron Pi Outstanding Service Award was given to Natalie Wilson, and the Sigma Kappa Scholarship Award was presented to Sarah Becker and Heather Hite. The conclusion of commencement centered around the flagpole where all graduates participated in their final rendition of Lambuth's alma mater.

Honor's Day

And the Winner is...

Each year Lambuth honors certain students and faculty for exceptional work during the previous year. Many of these Lambuth's scholars are also influential leaders in the community and give time and efforts to many causes. Scholastic awards are given to those students with the highest merit in particular fields. Overall, Lambuth always has good reason to set aside a day to honor some of its outstanding leaders.

Orientation

The new students at Lambuth started their year with a new addition to Orientation. They attended a SOAR Day this summer to register for classes and acquaint themselves with Lambuth before returning in the fall. The theme for Orientation 2000 was "Step Into Your Future." New students participated in Playfair, a huge group interaction game of icebreakers, the Community Plunge service project, a dance at Lambuth Memorial United Methodist Church, and the annual Sports Jamboree. The week concluded with a closing ceremony led by the Orientation Leader Team. The new students had an activity filled week and became fully prepared to start their life at Lambuth.

Homecoming 2000

"Smile for the camera!" That is exactly what Lambuth students did during Homecoming 2000. The theme, "Snapshots of Today," inspired new creative heights throughout the week in such competitions as sidewalk chalk, class banners, men's cheerleading, class football, and, of course, Lambuthpalooza - the annual variety show. Other Homecoming events included bed races, campus cleanup, and comedian night. But what Homecoming would be complete without a Friday night pep rally and the big game on Saturday against Cumberland University? Thanks and congratulations to the Homecoming Committee and everyone who participated in Homecoming 2000!

Who's Who Convocation

Lambuth's finest were honored at the Who's Who Convocation in November. The ceremony began with the traditional invocation from Dr. Joe Thornton and proceeded with insightful words from President Arnold. A beautiful rendition of "Ave Maria" from the Lambuth Singers followed. The 26 students honored, along with their proud families and classmates, then listened attentively to the keynote speaker, Mr. Jim Ayers, a local philanthropist and chairman of FirstBank of Parsons, Tennessee, who was featured in a July 2000 issue of PEOPLE magazine for his many philanthropic achievements. He related to a captive audience his three steps to success: hard work, a commitment to doing the right thing, and the belief in oneself. Academic Dean Susan Kupisch then recognized the 26 students, who were chosen for their high academic standards and extracurricular, leadership, and service activities. The Lambuth community congratulates these noteworthy students.

After the ceremony, two proud recipients, Jana Lucas and Amanda Jordan, reflect on their many achievements.

“Whatever things

Student Life at Lambuth involves a number of events both academic and social. Students at Lambuth are treated not only to a higher education, but also to an opportunity to develop into a more well-rounded individual. Most students will testify that it is possible to learn almost as much outside of the classroom as in it. Socializing and relaxing have their place in a day's schedule as do the other activities such as plays, charity benefits, and school-sponsored events that take place throughout the year. By taking advantage of programs offered, students are enriching their time at Lambuth and refining themselves into more esteemed individuals. Not to be overlooked, the friendships made while at Lambuth are assuredly lasting ones. Bonds are created through various situations and circumstances endured together and friends made in college become friends for life. Upon graduation, students leave Lambuth with an excelled level of knowledge in a particular field and a bundle of treasured memories and experiences to carry with them as they continue their individual and separate paths.

Scrooge

Scrooge debuted in late November and included members of the Lambuth student body, faculty, and staff, as well as members of the community. Directed by Florence Dyer, know to her fans as "Doc," Lambuth's fall production of Scrooge was one of the musical's first debuts in the nation. Scrooge is a timeless musical about finding the true meaning of the holiday spirit and is based on the story "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens.

Goodbye.....

Farewell...You'll be missed

The new school year brought in many new students and a few new faces to Lambuth's faculty and staff, but it also marked a time for goodbyes. David Eberhardt, Alicia Caudill, and Celeste Osgood, each a member of Student Development, served Lambuth with faithful hearts and all will be missed.

Life at Lambuth

Where do Lambuth students go in between classes? Is there more to life than sitting in a 7:50 a.m. class? Of course there is! Lambuth students are seen all over campus and the community at a variety of events and happenings. These pictures are just a few of the candids taken to catch Lambuth students outside their normal routine. You never know what you may find!

“Whatever things are

For many Lamubuth students the 11:00 hour on Friday afternoon has been filled at least once with a meeting. This time seems to be the universally accepted meeting time outside of anything starting at 9 pm on weeknights! Students' schedules are often busy with classes and other plans, but many students still find time to be involved in at least one on-campus organization or activity from the many that exist. Lambuth prides itself on the diverse range of experiences it can offer to students and one way it fulfills this is by offering many groups with which students can become involved. Being a student at Lambuth entails much more than simply attending classes on a regular basis. Being an active student at Lambuth means taking full advantage of all the extra- and co-curricular activities that are available.

Best Buddies

Best Buddies pairs people with mental retardation in one-to-one friendships with Lambuth students. The chapter meets for monthly activities such as cookouts and pizza nights with its buddies and students also have weekly contact with their buddies through activities such as shopping, bowling, and dining at local restaurants. The primary fundraising event of the year is the Best Buddies Benefit 5K Run/Walk held in late March. This year proceeds will benefit Lambuth's chapter of Best Buddies and Best Buddies International. Through the chapter's activities, people with mental retardation in the Jackson community are given the chance to explore new friendships while Lambuth volunteers are learning about leadership and community service.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization truly dedicated to God and spreading His word. The group meets on Tuesday nights for worship, games, a spiritual message, fellowship, and prayer. Many students feel that FCA meetings are a wonderful time of reflection. As a socially active organization, FCA has regular pizza nights at CiCi's, and it participates with other religious life organizations in All-Sing and Homecoming activities. One of the best aspects of FCA is membership of its many Christians regardless of athletic ability.

Religious Life Council

Religious Life Council leads, plans, and facilitates all religious life activities on campus. Advised by Assistant Chaplain, Danny Rhodes, and led by a select group of students leaders, Religious Life Council acts as a sounding board for students to voice their opinions concerning religious life activities, viewpoints, and prayer requests. Religious Life Council also meets to discuss upcoming activities for the Lambuth campus and community.

Phi Sigma Eta

Phi Sigma Eta is Lambuth's Christian women's service organization. Their purpose is to hold each other accountable and to have regular fellowship in Christian love while serving God, their campus, and community. Phi Sigma Eta's members gather weekly for Bible study and for discussion of upcoming service projects. Phi Sig sponsors Lambuth's blood drives, Prayer Pals, Bible drives, and it also serves the Jackson community by visiting the elderly and by buying gifts for a family at Christmas. The year 2000 is the last one for Phi Sigma Eta's remaining charter members. The organization has gained forty more members since its inception in 1996 and looks forward to its continued growth.

Alpha Omega

The men of Alpha Omega

Alpha Omega is Lambuth's Christian men's service organization. With the hard work of Nathan Eddy and others, Alpha Omega was chartered at Lambuth in October and the men set to work. Their purpose is to serve their campus, community, and God. They gather once a week for Bible study, fellowship, and planning. Their first project was a campus wide clean up, and it was a great success. The members of Alpha Omega expect to grow together in Christ and reach out to Lambuth's campus and the Jackson community by sharing God's love and truth to all they encounter.

Lantern

The light still shines in the darkness . . . despite the fact that there were times that the Lantern staff seemed to be sole pillars of light in a darkened world of deadlines. Late nights, early mornings, and hours in between were filled with last-minute details and corrections to meet deadlines with as much perfection as possible. With a virtually completely new staff, the Lantern worked hard to create a yearbook -- a scrapbook of memories, accolades, and friends -- and present it with professional and artistic flair. What has emerged is a product of many countless hours of hard work from a staff that is involved in a number of other activities themselves. Special thanks to Will Atkinson who supplied us with pictures for almost every occasion. Many people helped and contributed here and there and to them we are thankful. This publication is a difficult one to produce and many people's efforts were required to create the final product. May it serve you well as a reminder of Lambuth and all things "true, noble, just, pure, loveable, gracious, excellent, and admirable."

Residential Living Staff

The Residential Living Staff is comprised of four Resident Directors and many Resident Assistants, all trained for a variety of situations. Whether they are called upon to act as visitation police or to assist in a medical emergency, all staff members are highly qualified and able to meet the demand. Students wishing to become an RA must meet certain requirements and withstand an application and interview process. Once selected, extensive training is provided to help ensure productive and effective RAs are staffing the residence halls. Each RA provides a range of programs throughout the year which are usually open to all students in an effort to encourage the community to become involved on campus with one another.

Omicron Phi Tau

Omicron Phi Tau is a local honor fraternity started in 1930. The purpose of this organization is to promote scholarship in the University and to recognize those who have achieved a high degree of scholarship. Eligibility, which occurs in the second term of the junior and senior year, requires an academic average of 3.5, keeping in line with the national honor fraternities.

Phi Alpha Theta

Phi Alpha Theta, the national History honor society, exists to promote an awareness and appreciation for the role of History throughout civilization. The Rho Delta chapter of Phi Alpha Theta serves Lambuth University by presenting programs of historical interest and by exposing students to events and places of historical relevancy. In the spring of 2001, the Rho Delta chapter is particularly pleased to welcome the West Tennessee Historical Society to Lambuth for its annual meeting in March.

American Chemical Society

The Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society introduces undergraduate students to the profession of chemistry, to their responsibilities as chemists, and to the benefits of professional association with the American Chemical Society. The program also introduces students to careers in chemistry-related fields and to the practical applications of chemistry. ACS student affiliation is open to any student in good standing enrolled in course work leading to a bachelor's degree in chemistry or a related academic discipline.

Lambuth Association of Biologists

LAB (Lambuth Association of Biologists) is an organization structured specifically for interested biology students. Students demonstrate the required interest by successfully completing two semesters of biology. Once involved with the organization, a student has the opportunity to participate in field trips to zoos and other places, enjoy cookouts with other members, and listen to speakers brought in to the meetings scheduled periodically throughout each semester. Career planning and other useful information are also discussed among members.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association represents all parts of the Lambuth student body and is organized to help develop and voice student opinion regarding all university policies. Participation is open to all students through the SGA election. Elected members discuss topics such as campus curfews and organize such events as Homecoming. Each year SGA sponsors events such as the Womanless Beauty Review and Sleepout for the Homeless which benefit local charitable causes.

Student Teacher Education Association

STEA is a pre-professional organization for students aspiring to be educators. The organization meets monthly to discuss any business and plan community service projects. Some projects and activities STEA worked on this year included a brunch for teachers during Teacher Appreciation Week and story time at community schools during National Education Week. The goal of STEA is to provide a smooth transition from the college campus to the classroom for new teachers by giving them an edge for their first years of teaching. STEA successfully provides opportunities for education majors to learn more about various school systems and to gain experience in teaching before entering the field on their own. Nationally, STEA is about 60,000 members strong and continues to supplement the formal education of tomorrow's teachers.

Psychology Club

The Psychology Club is a group of students majoring or minoring in psychology who have demonstrated an interest in developing a better understanding of potential career options and practical uses of psychology. The organization helps students achieve their professional goals by focusing on professional development and service. The group participates in activities such as field trips to job sites, meetings with guest speakers, and attendance in the Mid-South Psychology Conference.

Salters, Diatri Soegomo, Jenny Hayes, Krista Vaughn, Emily Thompson, Rachel Graves, Brittany Carr, Kendra Edwards, Whitney Johnson, Sarah Whitlow, and Mandy Wofford.

Student Ambassadors are students who assist the Office of Enrollment Management with prospective students visiting Lambuth's campus. A student ambassador is provided to a potential student for the purpose of a campus tour guide, a lunch buddy, or an experienced student able to answer questions about Lambuth.

Panhellenic

Panhellenic, a committee comprised of representatives from each sorority on campus, meets weekly to improve unity among the members of the women's Greek organizations. Panhellenic accomplishes this goal through several activities including its annual sponsorship of All Sing, a variety show in which all campus organizations are encouraged to participate. All funds generated from Panhellenic All Sing are donated to local worthy charities.

Interfraternal Council governs the three men's Greek organizations, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. IFC is composed of chapter presidents, fraternity representatives, and advisor Sam Mauck, and it oversees fraternity activities including the recruitment program, educational programs, and all-campus events. IFC also sponsors the Fraternity Award of Excellence program and Greek programs throughout the year. IFC seeks to promote cooperation and understanding among the fraternities and to educate the Greek community on issues facing Greeks nationally.

Alpha Gamma Delta

The Theta Pi chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta, founded on Lambuth's campus in 1996, is comprised of ladies committed to religious faith, self-improvement, and community service. This year, the chapter welcomed nine ladies into its sisterhood. Alpha Gamma Delta's primary philanthropy supports juvenile diabetes research, and this year it held a Christmas stocking sale to raise money for this cause. In addition, the ladies enjoyed annual activities such as the AGD Hayride, Mistletoe Match Christmas Formal, and Petals and Pearls Spring Formal. Alpha Gamma Delta hopes to continue its success in the future with events that will incorporate its sisterhood into more aspects of Lambuth life.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

The undergraduate and graduate chapters are located throughout the United Kingdom, Bahamas, Virgin Islands, Korea, and Germany. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. does not discriminate based upon race, religion, or national origin. The organization is governed by a Board of Directors who supervise membership within an identified geographical area including colleges and universities. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. was founded in 1908 at Howard University in Washington D.C., and is the oldest sorority founded by women of African descent.

The Omicron Omicron Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. was chartered on December 11, 1988, on the campus of Lambuth University. It is the first and only black Greek letter organization to be chartered on Lambuth's campus. The following are the active members of the Omicron Omicron Chapter: Lynn Kirby, Nikeisha Smothers, Lynn Bowie, Erica Thomas, and Tanshanieka Perry. All members are very active in numerous community projects.

Alpha Omicron Pi

The ladies of Alpha Omicron Pi started the year with a successful recruitment, during which their chapter gained 16 new members. Their contributions both on and off campus have been innumerable, including their Annual Faculty Tea and Band Benefit for Arthritis Research. The ladies also excelled in intramurals and other campus activities and enjoyed fraternity swaps. They were led by President Amanda Jordan, VP Administration Brooke Birdsong, VP Education Cathleen Cox, and VP Academic Development Emily Cooper, among others. Their constant efforts to contribute to their campus and community have made them the successful sisterhood they are today.

Phi Mu

The year began early for the Kappa Nu Chapter. They were awarded the Carnation Cup this summer, which is the highest honor given to any Phi Mu chapter. The ladies of Kappa Nu gained seventeen new members during Recruitment. The new Phis were treated to a Bid Day picnic at Chickasaw State Park. Soon after, the ladies of Phi Mu placed first in the overall activities held during Homecoming Week. The ladies of Phi Mu began the social part of their year attending swaps with all the fraternities, Pumpkin Patch Match, and a Christmas party. Band Party and Carnation Ball followed in the spring to conclude the year. The chapter's philanthropy events included delivering IV bags to Lebonheur Children's Hospital and the Annual Football Fundraiser for Lebonheur.

Kappa Alpha Order

The Gamma Omicron chapter of Kappa Alpha Order became one of the best chapters in the Order this year. At the National Leadership Institute, the Gamma Omicron chapter won five of the six national awards given. These honors included the Top Philanthropy Award for raising $70,000, The Cross and Rose Award for Best National Outreach, Top Dollar Earned by Each Man, and the Samuel Zennes Summer Award for the chapter's sixth place out of 126 chapters in the Order.

Kappa Sigma

In a continuing tradition of excellence, Kappa Sigma started the year with an outstanding rush, gaining 14 pledges and bringing the membership to 32. Members, as well as executive officers T.C. Miller, Derek Morales, Jeremy Moseley, Chet Allen, Shannon Samples, and Joey Cabay, look forward to a great year. Annual Kappa Sigma activities include their Lily of the Valley Ceremony, Humane Society Benefit, spring formal, and holiday activities such as work in a soup kitchen for the homeless and adoption of a family in need of basic supplies. The men of Kappa Sigma are always eager and active on campus and in the community.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

In 2000, Sigma Phi Epsilon celebrates its centennial, commemorating a century of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love. The Tennessee Zeta Chapter strives daily to embody the cardinal principles that have made for a century of excellence. The idea of the balanced man - leader, scholar, athlete, and gentleman - permeates every phase of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The brothers of Tennessee Zeta are leaders in many campus and community organizations. In addition to its leadership, the Tennessee Zeta Chapter prides itself on a high level of scholastic achievement year after year. Also, Sigma Phi Epsilon participates heavily in Lambuth's intramurals programs and has several varsity athletes among its members. Finally, the Tennessee Zeta Chapter embodies its dedication to gentlemanly behavior through philanthropy.

This year Sigma Phi Epsilon, with the help of many throughout the Jackson and Lambuth communities, raised almost $1500 for Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Madison County, Sigma Phi Epsilon's main philanthropy, with its second annual Oksoberfest, an event honoring alcohol awareness week. As the fraternity embarks on its hundredth year nationally and thirtieth year locally at Lambuth, the brothers are continuing to strive to embody principles of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love.

Discipleship Accountability Groups

Discipleship Accountability Groups started 3 years ago and have been growing ever since. Groups are comprised of 5 to 6 people and each member of the group then holds the other students accountable to their walk with God. This accountability is accomplished through weekly meetings that include sharing of scripture, prayer, struggles and praises. Group members also hold each other accountable for their Christian walks outside of meetings as well. Group members grow extremely close to each other throughout the semesters and even closer to God - which is the ultimate goal.

The Vision

Lambuth's newspaper, The Vision, seeks to keep the Lambuth community informed. Each edition includes campus, regional, and national information and editorial comments. Readers can expect news concerning organizations, faculty and staff, music, arts, entertainment, sports, and letters to the editor.

Old Vision format

Improvements to The Vision include a new format, the addition of advertising, and a larger staff. In the future, the staff hopes to increase the number of publications per month and to continue to keep students aware of current events.

“Whatever things are

Lambuth University offers many outlets for competitive athletes to shine. From an intensive football program to the detailed regimen of the volleyball team, Lambuth demands stamina and hard work from each of its athletes. Whether on the field playing, on the court practicing, or in the weight room lifting, our athletes give their all to being the best they possibly can. For love of the game or pride in themselves, the athletes strive to always emerge as leaders and champions.

Softball

The 2000-2001 Eagles Softball Team starts its year with several returning players and three freshmen. Although there are no seniors this year, the team is extremely talented and Coach Will Atkinson predicts a worthy contribution from the new players. The team foresees tough competition from opponents such as Cumberland University and Lindsey Wilson College; however, the team feels up to a challenge. Coach Atkinson believes that the youthfulness of the group will also provide stability for the team as they learn to play well together each year. The Eagles will play sixty season games and will also play a Division II team, North Alabama, and a Division I team, East Tennessee State. Fans may cheer for the Eagles as they pursue the goal of the Mid-South Conference Championship.

Baseball

The 2000-2001 Eagles have a full team roster with several new freshmen. The team has several goals this year which include achieving a winning record, playing well together, and winning the Mid-South NAIA Conference Championship. The team sees its toughest opponent this year as Cumberland University. However, with strong hitting and a solid outfield and infield, the Eagles expect to give all their opponents a competitive game. Lambuth fans may watch the Eagles at over sixty season games in places such as Kentucky, Alabama, Arkansas, South Carolina, Florida, and of course, Tennessee. With its seasoned veterans and talented freshmen, the Eagles will surely walk away winners.

Women's Basketball

The 2000-2001 Lady Eagles Basketball Team has high hopes for an impressive season. The team welcomed back several players including its seniors, Amanda Byars and Mollie Pruett. Despite a challenging schedule, Lambuth fans will no doubt be treated to exciting games with a strong defense from the Lady Eagles. The team has several goals this year, two of which are to come together as a team and to make it to the NAIA Tournament. With their skills, these goals are definitely obtainable.

Men's Basketball

The 2000-2001 Men's Basketball Team promises an exciting and competitive season with a preseason ranking of number two in the NAIA national conference. This year's squad consists of three seniors (James Foster, Sibiu Mabaso, and Greg Spence) and seven returning players. Lambuth fans can expect to see strong defense and excellent all-around skills from seasoned players and the team's six new freshman players. With the help of veteran players and the quality of the freshman class, the Eagles plan to be strong contenders in the Mid-South Conference Championship and in the NAIA Tournament. With their performance thus far in the season, these goals will easily be obtainable.

Cross Country

Cross country is a sport that takes great physical and mental endurance in which runners are forced to withstand long periods of stress. Lambuth's team tested its endurance when it traveled to competitions in Memphis, Nashville, Berea, and many other places. The team experienced several wins this year as it had a full, talented roster. Lambuth's team looks forward to another winning season next year.

Cheerleading

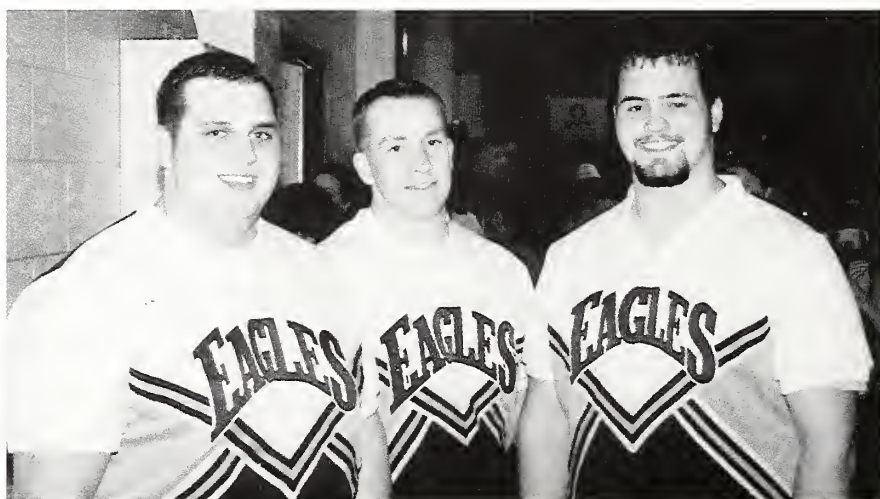

Lambuth cheerleaders spurred their teams on to victory in the 2000-2001 season. With Lisa Warmath as the new head coach and Hillary Williams as team captain, the Lambuth Eagles literally soar to new heights with 19 members - 14 girls and 5 guys. In October, cheerleaders rose spirits during Homecoming weekend and helped at the Heartwalk in November. The Lambuth Cheerleaders finish out their season at the Mid-South Conference in Kentucky. Dance Team

The 2000-2001 Dance Team worked hard to provide high-energy and spirited performances throughout the season. With a squad of twenty-one girls, the dance team has grown and it continues to develop into a large group of very talented and enthusiastic girls. Having such a large number of members, the team was able to work together to perfect routines and grow together as a squad while entertaining and uplifting the audience's and team's morale at each game.

Football

The Lambuth Eagles entered their 2000 campaign with high expectations. After two early non-conference losses, the Eagles started to get on track. Winning six of their final seven games, Lambuth finished tenth in the nation, qualifying them for the playoffs. After a heartbreaking first round loss, the Eagles were left to prepare to make another championship run in 2001.

The Eagles have maintained a 14 home game winning streak, not having lost a home game in three years. Sophomore Ryan Watson said of the program, "It feels good to be in a place where winning isn't only expected, it's a tradition." The Eagles plan to continue this tradition of excellence into next year's 2001 season. - As reported by Brian Carlton

Women's Soccer

The 2000-2001 Lady Eagles Soccer Team kicked off a successful season with very few returning players. As junior midfielder Melissa Bell said of the team, "We worked so well together considering the fact that we had fifteen new freshmen." Of the twenty active team members, four were named to the First All-Conference Team, including Laura Fernandez, Laura Harrison, Melissa Bell, and Aubrey Ingold. The Lady Eagles maintained a consistent record throughout the season and plan to continue their strides toward success in the 2001 season.

Men's Soccer

The 2000-2001 Men's Soccer Team played impressively in what Head Coach Chris Przemieniecki called a "rebuilding year." Twenty of the thirty team members are freshmen at Lambuth and nine of these players started. The team also boasts an international flair with players from Ireland, Scotland, Bosnia, and England. Lambuth can be especially proud of Jansen Schroeder, Kyle Burgett, Matt Artrip, and Clark Hastings, all of whom were named to the All-Conference Team.

Tennis

The Lambuth Tennis Team has increased in number and strength in preparation for this year. With one returning member, the women's team has a lot of energy and skill among all the new faces. They hold high hopes of a great season and a strong finish in the spring competitions. The men's team also has the capability of a successful season with several strong players on its side. Overall, the tennis team as a whole is in good standing to perform excellently this season.

Volleyball

The Lady Eagles Volleyball Team showed great strength in its perseverance and teamwork throughout the 2000 season. The girls ended the season with a ranking of fifth in their conference. The volleyball team also had many members on All-Conference Teams. On the first All-Conference Team were Lacey Hofmeyer, who was also named to the All-Region, and Tawanna Curry, who was named Second All-Region. Sabrina Brown was named to the Second All-Conference Team, and Brandy Wilstead received Honorable Mention.

“Whatsoever things are

Students are the heart of Lambuth as anyone would readily agree. Many commencement and award programs are presented each year to recognize the achievements of many scholastic and community leaders among the students. Each year the student body is strengthened by an incredible incoming freshman class and this year was no exception. From the freshman class to the senior class, Lambuth has an outstanding record of praiseworthy community leaders, athletes, religious leaders, and scholars. Lambuth prides itself on being a small liberal arts school aimed at providing personal attention for growth and development. The students testify to the success of this goal and demonstrate that quality is much more than just large quantity. The heart of Lambuth lies in its small, dedicated student population.
